Recently, a visiting men’s basketball team from Mississippi was on our campus for a Saturday afternoon game. As the visiting team was arriving on campus, their bus driver parked alongside the Carter Activities Center and the visiting team members entered through the new student center. My heart swelled with pride as I heard one of the visiting players say, “wow, this is really cool, I wish we had a student center like this on our campus.” Hearing that statement, made me once again, appreciative of the supporters who insist that CRC continues to progress with facilities and academic offerings as it provides affordable, high quality, Christian education. CRC operates with a fiscally conservative policy. We live within our means while charging our students less tuition than conservative policy. We live within our means while charging our students less tuition than...
