And Financial Support Data”
(Official Report Name)

The Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act (EADA) requires a college or university that has an intercollegiate athletic program to make prospective students aware of its commitment to providing equitable athletic opportunities for its male and female students. As part of this requirement each institution is to provide by November 1, 2022 its EADA report. This report is available to students, prospective students, and the public in easily accessible places. A college or university may make hard copies available in intercollegiate athletic offices, admissions offices, or any office designated by the institution and/or in electronic format if requested. A college or university must provide the information to anyone who requests it.

Athletics Participation at Crowley's Ridge College 2021-2022

Federal regulations require that the following information, based on the previous reporting year, be available for inspection by students, prospective students and the public by October 15 of each year (November 1 – this year). This table lists the number of participants by gender for each varsity team. According to the published federal regulations governing EADA reporting, a participant is defined as a student-athlete who, as of the day of a varsity team's first scheduled contest – (a) is listed by the institution on the varsity team's roster; or (b) receives athletically related student aid; or (c) practices with the varsity team and receives coaching from one or more varsity coaches. Any student-athlete who satisfies one or more of these criteria is a participant, including a student on a team the institution designates or defines as a junior varsity, freshman, or novice, or a student withheld from competition to preserve eligibility (i.e. a redshirt) or for academic, medical, or other medical reasons.
