

Crowley's Ridge College has a job opening in Admissions for an Admissions Representative

Needed by January 1, 2022

Crowley's Ridge College has a position available in our Admissions Department for an Admissions Representative. A young man is preferred, with the ability to connect to high school and college-age prospective students and their families.

CRC has an extensive student recruiting plan, which includes communicating with prospective students about what CRC can offer them. This is accomplished through campus visits, phone or email or other forms of communication, representing CRC at high schools, community colleges, and among home school connections. This young man will also present to youth groups, Bible classes, and other church-related events while reaching out to prospective students and their parents among the Churches of Christ. Some traveling, including overnight trips will be required.

This is a full-time position with a benefits package.

Applicant must be a member of the Church of Christ and have a bachelor's degree at a minimum. References required, including at least one from the current Church of Christ attending.
